ADVISORS	MR. THOMAS YOUNG
	MISS LESLIE PRESCOTT

The ECHO editors and staff would like to express their gratitude to Mr. Thomas Young and Miss Leslie Prescott for coming into a very difficult situation and taking on the task of training us — mostly newcomers to this whole process, keeping after us to meet deadlines and helping us to complete and present a yearbook of which we can be proud.

DEDICATION

During our six years here at Holbrook Junior/Senior High School, we have developed very special relationships with many members of the faculty. Now, as the last few remaining days pass quickly by, we realize that our time together has been far too short, but, even so, it has created memories that we will have with us always. The good times and, yes, the bad times that we have spent together will never be forgotten, and we will cherish the memories of each and every one of you. The teaching that you have done, in and out of the classroom, has taught us the values of life.

As we recognize the role that each one of you has played in our lives, we express our gratitude. You are a caring and concerned faculty, one which we respect and admire. You are loved and appreciated by many of us right now and, we are sure, in future years that number will increase. It is for these reasons and many more individual reasons from each of us to each of you, that we, the staff of the 1992 Echo and the members of the Class of 1992, dedicate this year's yearbook to our favorite faculty —

THE FACULTY OF HOLBROOK JR./SR. HIGH SCHOOL.

A MESSAGE FROM OUR PRINCIPAL

Holbrook High School has been a place where you have had the opportunity to receive an education; grow into young, responsible adults, and prepare for your future. Look back on these years and remember the contributions of your friends, parents, teachers, administrators and others in making you the person you are today. As you reflect on these times remember the good and bad, your successes and failures, your victories and defeats. It has been a learning experience that will continue to carry you through a lifetime of happiness and success.

Your town and school community has served you well and, hopefully, you will always look back to these years with loyalty to your school and fondness for your loving and supportive friends.

Best wishes to the Class of 1992. It's all out there, so go and get it!

WITH THANKS

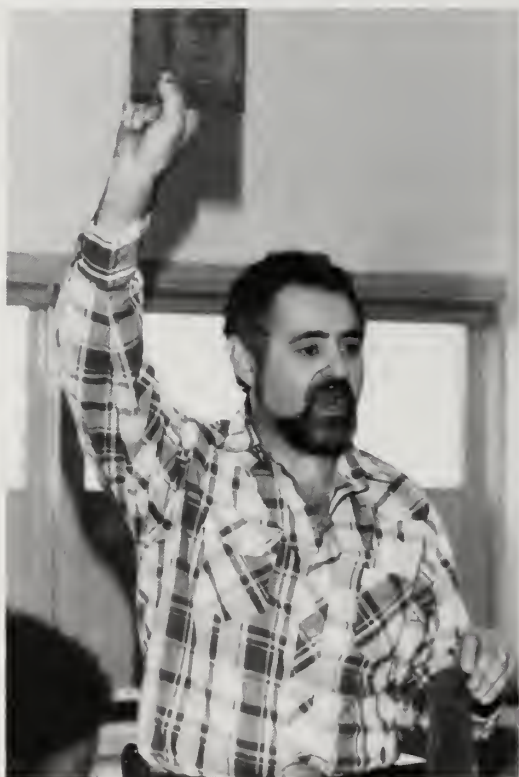

When we returned to our senior year last September the future of our class was somewhat uncertain. We had lost our class advisor and, since this was the most important year of our school career, we needed an advisor who was experienced and willing to give time and effort unselfishly. We were fortunate in finding that type of enthusiasm and dedication in Mr. Fred Perrone.

Mr. Perrone has given of himself open-heartedly to our class. He has encouraged us to realize our strengths and to try to be the very best we can. He has brought our class together as a whole unit and is now a very important part of it. He has become indispensable to us, and we gratefully give him the respect and thanks that he so richly deserves.

Mr. Perrone, you have been both an inspiration and role model for us, and for this we thank you and we love you.

Invictus

Out of the night that covers me,
Black as the Pit from pole to pole,
I thank whatever gods may be
For my unconquerable soul.

In the fell clutch of circumstance
I have not winced nor cried aloud.
Under the bludgeonings of chance
My head is bloody, but unbowed.

Beyond this place of wrath and tears
Looms but the horror of the shade,
And yet the menace of the years
Finds, and shall find me, unafraid.

It matters not how strait the gate,
How charged with punishments the scroll,
I am the master of my fate:
I am the captain of my soul.

IN SCHOOL-DAYS
FROM IN SCHOOL-DAYS
John Greenleaf Whittier

Still sits the schoolhouse by the road,
A ragged beggar sleeping;
Around it still the sumachs grow,
And blackberry-vines are creeping.

Within, the master's desk is seen,
Deep scarred by raps official;
The warping floor, the battered seats,
The jackknife's carved initial;

The charcoal frescoes on its wall;
Its door's worn sill, betraying
The feet that, creeping slow to school,
Went storming out to playing!

Long years ago a winter sun
Shone over it at setting;
Lit up its western windowpanes,
And low eaves' icy fretting.

It touched the tangled golden curls,
And brown eyes full of grieving,
Of one who still her steps delayed
When all the school were leaving.

For near her stood the little boy
Her childish favor singled:
His cap pulled low upon a face
Where pride and shame were mingled.

Pushing with restless feet the snow
To right and left, he lingered;—
As restlessly her tiny hands
The blue-checked apron fingered.

He saw her lift her eyes; he felt
The soft hand's light caressing,
And heard the tremble of her voice,
As if a fault confessing.

"I'm sorry that I spelt the word:
I hate to go above you,
Because"—the brown eyes lower fell—
"Because, you see, I love you!"
